SUMMER MAGAZINE

M T W T F S S

Note: November, 1994

Dear diary,
I shot my magazine today. I wasn't sure what I wanted to do for it, or what theme I thought it should be. I've honestly been so sad and unmotivated lately, that this may have been the hardest issue to shoot so far. I love my magazine, but sometimes life really tries to get in the way, huh? So instead of letting it get to me, I threw in my Backstreet Boys CD, and grabbed my cameras and shot another selfie issue. A lot of my fans said they preffered the self-shot style of my previous issue, so I thought i'd try it out one more time. Different vibe, dope location, and a. fabulous wardrobe. I made a burn book of all my exes, burned some or their photos, and made a killer playlist to dance around to. Fuck being sad, as IF.
