KAYLA LAUREN

How did you get started in modeling?
Modeling kind of fell into my lap. I had been working in psychiatric treatment since graduating college and I very seldom used social media. One day about 2 years ago, I decided to say yes to a photographer's request to shoot and it kind of just took off from there.

What is your favorite and least favorite part of being in the spotlight?
My favorite part is the ability to influence. I know that word sounds corny and overused, but when you have a following/spotlight, you really do have the power and responsibility to influence in a positive way. My least favorite part is the assumptions people make about my character, intelligence, and lifestyle based solely on images. I've said it before and will say it until I'm devoid of oxygen, you can be pretty, smart, talented, funny, and kind simultaneously.

How have you managed to stay so grounded despite being in the spotlight?
I think it's been a bit easier for me to stay grounded because I got into this industry a lot later in my life than lots of people. In some ways, that can be a handicap, but I do believe it's allowed me to stay tied to my roots and values

If you could be anything other than a model, what would you be?
Being a model for me, which is still even strange to identify with, is more a means to an end. Other than being able to influence positive change with a platform, I really look at modeling as a way to save money so that I can pay for graduate school and launch my own wellness center. So that would be (and will be) what I do!

What is your ideal date?
My ideal date is some sort of workout or nature-related experience followed by, and I cannot stress the importance of this enough, food. I love being active just as much as I love eating, so that's the jam.

What do you look for in a partner?

Sense of humor is important to me in a partner and is certainly at the top of the list. I am intensely sarcastic and so are all my friends and family, so you gotta be able to keep up. Other than that, I need someone who is motivated and passionate. I have the tendency to match energy levels, so I need a man who is vibrating high. You don't have to be rich or tall or any other stereotype. I really connect with character.

What is something people would be surprised to know about you?

People may be surprised that I'm mostly introverted. Despite a portion of my life being put on display to social media, I actually spend a lot of my time alone, exercising, reading, eating, and listening to music.

What's next for Kayla Lauren??

As for what's next, I just started an accelerated graduate program through USC. I'll be earning a Masters of Science in Applied Psychology in 16 months time. I'll simultaneously be working on my own branding as well as partnering with other brands!

WHEN YOU HAVE A FOLLOWING, YOU REALLY DO HAVE THE POWER AND RESPONSIBILITY TO INFLUENCE IN A POSITIVE WAY.

What's it like running the magazine from the top while also being featured?

A LOT of work. I creative direct, edit, write, organize the shoots, etc. I love it though! I really wanted a creative outlet and somewhere where I made the call.

What are your top 3 favorite movies?

Ahhh that's hard!...Memoirs of A Geisha, Hamilton on Disney+, My neighbor Totoro...and about 1,000 more, haha. I really love movies so it's hard to choose!

If you could be anything other than rich, what would you be?

LOL, well when I think "rich", I think like Jeff Bezos-rich, so I don't think I'm rich at all. I'm so lucky to finally be at a place in life where I'm comfortable and can save, but I'm no bilionaire! ...yet.

What is your worst fear?

Spiders and death. And yes, equally.

When did you have your first kiss?

I was such a prude and didn't have my first real kiss until I was 15. It was my boyfriend at the time, and he kissed me in the dark auditorium after band practice. Yes, I was a band geek.

Do your new tattoos mean anything or are they just for looks?

They do! they're all very personal to me and have a special place in my heart. I'll keep them a secret for the time being. :)
