KEEP IT ANONYMOUS

I asked for your craziest, funniest, and kinkiest sex stories. Here are just a few.

“I was banging this one girl doggy facing the foot of the bed and she had one of those zen garden waterfall things on her night stand...I got a savage thigh cramp so I instinctually straightened my leg and donkey kicked the shit outta that thing haha rocks, sand and water everywhere. Plot twist: she told me to keep going and we both climaxed. The end”

”When I was in college, I got home really late one Friday night, before I walked into my apartment, I heard wired noises, didn’t think much of it. I walked into my apartment, and saw my roommate Jessica completely naked on all fours the coffee table. In front of her was our upstairs neighbor that was on the college football team. She had been flirting with him all semester. He was completely naked, she was sucking him, while he was holding her hair. Behind her was some dude I have never seen before, just pounding her. He was smacking her ass and just going to town. She was moaning and screaming “F me boys, F me like a s*ut tonight”. I went straight into my room. They went at it all night. It was an interesting next day hahaha”

”I had a Tinder date, it was the first time we saw each other. Things were going good and we were having a blast, so, as she was alone at home, we decided to go there and have sex. Her flatmate got home earlier and caught us having sex in the living room, she was petrified lol Was fun + embarrasing tho and we had a laugh!”

”About 10 years after graduating high school I had a shot to hook up with my old crush. She had two kids by then so we strategically fed them and put cartoons on for distractions before heading to the bedroom. Two minutes into her and we hear the kids fighting and screaming, suddenly the door flies open! Her 3 year old son sprung the latch with a goddamn steak knife and was now running towards the bed. I was unprepared for the sight of a toddler running at me while being balls deep in his mother so I did what any self respecting guy would do in that moment... I came!”

”So I’ve had a crush on this girl from my school for a while now and I see her making eyes and smiles from across the cafeteria. Luckily she got a schedule change and ended up being in one of my classes coincidentally we had a group project and she just so happens to sit at my table. Now, this all happened before covid so this was a time of no masks. So anyways we get to talking and start thinking about how long we’ve known each other so I take her to a local park and we have a spliff to spark up and she starts getting all handsy so we get out the car because I didn’t want it smelling like ocean afterward (LOL) me and her go a little spot near a creek where we see no one and she starts giving me head behind a tree at a park. I was so turned on because she was cute after all and also maybe now that I think about it, it may have also been the fact that I could’ve been caught or seen by someone.”
