A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

THIS month has been so full of emotions. Anger, sadness, hope, resentment, fear, panic. Activism and protesting for causes I believe in is a huge passion of mine. I have, and will always use my platform for good, whether everyone believes in the same causes as me or not. I believe that everything i fight for is just and good.

On June 24th, 2022, the Supreme Court of the United States of America overturned Roe v. Wade, ending 50 years of federal abortion rights. Since 1973, the women's right to choose was deemed safe and legal by the government, as I always should have been. Last month, women's daughter's woke up with less rights than they themselves had at their age. Whether those believe that abortion is right or wrong, we should both agree that forcing every single woman in the united states be forced to uphold their own personal values should NOT be what America stands for.

This isn't just about me. This isn't JUST about abortion, this is about body autonomy and women's freedom. Everyone loves a woman, and everyone loves a woman who has had an abortion, whether they know it or not.

Abortion remains legal in my state, but not everyone has that privilege. Just last week, a 10-year-old rape victim was denied an abortion in Ohio. Read that again. A 10 year-old-rape victim. I don't need to get into what the "Bible says", or what people morally believe, The fact of the matter is it what a woman does with her body should be her choice, and remain safe and legal. End. Of. Story. Fight the good fight.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing black sunglasses, a black halter-neck crop top, and tan work boots, stands in a city plaza. She holds a white sign with handwritten text. Her right arm is raised to her forehead. The background features a dense urban skyline with several tall skyscrapers, including one with a yellow 'ARCOM' sign. A large green tree is on the right, and a black metal railing is in the mid-ground. The ground is paved asphalt.
