Catrinel Marlon

In true fairy tale fashion, Catrinel Marlon was discovered at the age of 16 when she was turning back home from a track and field practice. She had an immediate success in the modeling business after she signed a contract with MRA Models Agency in Bucharest. After just a couple of months she participated in the 'Ford Supermodel of Romania' where she placed second. She soon moved to the world's fashion capital Milan and signed a contract with Major Models Agency. Currently, she is being represented by IMG Models Agency in New York.

Catrinel's portfolio began to expand exponentially , appearing in numerous international editions of Maxim and FHM. As for fashion shows, she presented for prestigious designers.

In 2004 she was named the most beautiful woman in the world by FHM Romanian edition and model of the year by Pantene.
